

RMLNLU

September, 2012

LLB/ SEM-I/12-13/MT/Psy.-I

TIME: 1½ HOURS

Psychology - I

Max. Marks: 60

Answer all the questions.

Figures in the margin indicate the marks.

(Section A)

(1 x 20)

1. How model of classical conditioning accounts for criminal behavior?

Or

What are the effects of learning on perception?

(Section B)

(5 x 4)

2. Distinguish between positive and negative punishment as operator for behavior.
3. How self control is related with 'Go and Know' system?
4. 'Human beings do not record the events and stimuli around them passively'. Illustrate with the help of two examples.
5. 'Reality shaped by perception may prove to be a matter of life and death'. Discuss in the light of boiled frog syndrome.
6. 'The combination of three major concerns defines psychology as a unique field'. Comment.

(Section C)

(10 x 2)

7. Answer the correct choice, answer as the need be
- i. Cured cocaine addicts, if confronted by white powder, may experience an irresistible impulse to use the drug again. This irresistible impulse can be explained on the basis of.....
- ii. Who coined the term self actualization?
- iii. According to..... Perspective, behavior is motivated by powerful unconscious drives and conflicts.
- iv. It is important to break perceptual habits and interrupt..... to become a better eyewitness to life.
- v. Obtaining and evaluating the information, which is free from bias as far as possible, is not essential for scientific approach. (True/False)
- vi. Without depth perception, human beings would be able to drive a car or ride a bicycle. (True/False)
- vii. Conditioned responses are not subject to conscious reasoning because classical conditioned responses are built on the basis of conscious thought. (True/False)
- viii. Video surveillance system can capture and display huge amount of data but human beings are better equipped to understand the data with help of perceptual construction. (True/False)

Define the following:

- ix. Bottom-up processing.
- x. Confirmation bias.
-