

Antitrust Programme for Young Fellows 2014

Key Benefits

- Learn from distinguished antitrust practitioners from India and abroad
- Engage with a diverse peer group ( Law, Economic, Business Management etc)
- Understand the practical implications of competition law through case studies & real life problem solving techniques
- Case centric participatory learning
- Take a step ahead in being job ready
- Comprehensive coverage of law, Economics and business strategy interfaces

Theme of the Year: “5 Years of Competition Law Enforcement in India”

The School of Competition Law & Market Regulation, IICA in partnership with the Competition Commission of India (CCI), announce the first “Antitrust Programme for Young Fellows 2014” which comprises of two components: (a) Antitrust Writing Contest; and (b) Antitrust Summer School. The programme is aimed at university students and researchers engaged in the field of law, economics, and business management, CA & CS having a strong penchant to build their careers around this new and rapidly evolving field of law. The aspiring candidates may choose to participate in any one or both the following programmes:

Antitrust Writing Contest

Deadline for Submission: June 20, 2014

Original writings up to 5,000 words (including citations and references) on the following themes are invited:

- 5 Years of competition law enforcement in India: Achievements & challenges
- Innovative approaches to detect cartels and bid rigging
- Challenges in determination and enforcement of penalties
- Approaches to address policy and law induced market distortions
- Fair, Reasonable & Non-Discriminatory Terms (FRAND Terms): A Challenge for India?
- A Challenge for Intellectual Property Rights-Competition Interface in India?
- Competitive Neutrality: Challenges in the context of public sector enterprises and subsidies
- Innovations in competition outreach: New approaches for effective compliance and capacity building
- Scrutinizing below threshold combinations: Feasibility and approaches
- Revisiting business strategy to stay competition law compliant
- Competition Law and Indian economy: Future directions & challenges for next 5 years

Awards:

- 1st Prize: Rs. 20,000/-
- 2nd Prize: Rs. 15,000/-
- 3rd Prize: Rs. 10,000/-

- Top five papers (including the top three cash prize winners), receive summer school fellowship and an opportunity to present their work during the summer school. Selected papers may be published suitably.

Antitrust Summer School

July 1-5, 2014, IICA Campus, IMT Manesar, Gurgaon

Summer School Coverage:

- Fundamentals of economy & market
- Competition Act, 2002
- Use of economic tools in competition law
- Competition jurisprudence
- Investigation, procedural & appellate provisions of competition law
- Business strategy decisions
- Other contemporary issues
- Comparative study and international best practices

Limited Intake: Short-listed candidates will be intimated by the School by 27th June, 2014

Participation Fee: Rs.10,000/- plus applicable tax per participant. The fee covers: participation in the summer school, resource kit, accommodation, all meals & refreshment at IICA campus, IMT Manesar, Gurgaon

Last date for Registration: June 25, 2014