NATIONAL SEMINAR

ON

“INTERNATIONAL HUMAN RIGHTS LAW: PROSPECTS AND CHALLENGES”

20th February 2016

Organized by

Centre for Advanced Studies in Human Rights (CASIHR)

RAJIV GANDHI NATIONAL UNIVERSITY OF LAW,
PUNJAB

ABOUT THE ORGANIZER

Rajiv Gandhi National University of Law (RGNUL), Punjab, was established by the State Legislature of Punjab by passing the Rajiv Gandhi National University of Law, Punjab Act, (Punjab Act No. 12 of 2006). The Act incorporated a University of Law of national stature in Punjab, thereby fulfilling the need for a Centre of Excellence in legal education in the modern era of globalization and liberalization.

Centre for Advanced Studies in Human Rights (CASIHR) was established by RGNUL to undertake and promote advanced study and research in the emerging trends relating to Human Rights. The ultimate objective of CASIHR is to emerge as a think tank for national and international issues relevant to promotion and protection of Human Rights and human dignity.

CONCEPT NOTE

Human Rights, especially after the Universal Declaration of Human Rights, have come to occupy a pivotal place in international and national policy considerations. However, despite the increased focus on Human Rights, the reality of the day is “Too much emphasis – Too many violations”. Though there is stringent enforcement of laws, collective efforts by the governments, the active participation of media and the Human Rights agencies, the Human Rights scenario world over is posed with various challenges because for a larger section of the society, Human Rights are still an abstract concept. In this backdrop, the importance of Human Rights Education acquires increased importance; it assumes potential significance in transforming Human Rights issues into reality. This Seminar is an endeavour to spread awareness regarding the multi-faceted concept of International Human Rights laws among the youth, academia and even the common masses, as well as to contribute to the global discourse on the way forward for International Human Rights laws.

CALL FOR PAPERS

Seminar papers are invited from academicians, practitioners, researchers, scholars and students on the issues related to specified themes. It is also proposed that the selected papers by the Committee will be published in a special volume on the seminar in the form of an edited book with ISBN No. Only Full Papers submitted on or before the deadline shall be considered for the publication. Authors of selected papers would be given an opportunity to present their papers as per requirement of the theme during sessions on the day of the seminar in person or through web-conferencing.

GUIDELINES FOR PAPER

An abstract should contain not more than 300–350 words accompanied by a brief profile of the authors indicating their name, designation, email ID, contact number and official address. The full paper must not exceed a maximum of 5000 words (excluding footnotes). The abstract and full paper must be formatted in adherence to the following guidelines:

Font Style	Times New Roman
Font Size	12 (Main Text); 10 (Footnotes)
Line Spacing	1.5 (Main Text); 1 (Footnotes)
Margin	1” on all sides
Citation Style	Bluebook 19th Edition
File Name	Name of Author + Title of Paper
File Format	.doc/.docx/.pdf

All the abstracts and full length papers shall be sent to the email id: casahr@rgnul.ac.in
