ICON 2019

ICFAI Conference of Nations 2019.
JAN 25 - 27

About ICFAI Conference of Nations.

The United Nations is an international organization founded in the year 1945. It is currently made up of 193 sovereign member states. The mission and work of the United Nations are guided by the purposes and principles contained in its founding Charter. The organs of the UN are, The General Assembly, The Security Council, The Economic & Social Council, The Trusteeship Council, International Court of Justice and The UN Secretariat. These organs were established in the year 1945 when the UN was founded. Model United Nations, commonly known by the abbreviation MUN's is an educational simulation and an academic competition where participants can learn more about diplomacy, negotiations, international relations and learn how various organs of The United Nations function. ICON 2018 aims to foster global citizenship and address current world issues related to regional conflicts, peacekeeping, human rights, economic and social development, disarmament and nuclear security and the environment. We aim to create a platform for the delegates with interesting agendas and by promoting diplomacy and global awareness.
