ABOUT RAJIV GANDHI NATIONAL UNIVERSITY OF LAW, PUNJAB

Rajiv Gandhi National University of Law (RGNUL), Punjab, was established by the State Legislature of Punjab by passing the Rajiv Gandhi National University of Law Punjab Act, (Punjab Act No. 12 of 2006). The Act incorporated a University of Law of national stature in Punjab, thereby fulfilling the need for a Center of Excellence in legal Education in the modern era of globalization and liberalization. RGNUL is the first National Law University to be accredited with Grade “A” by National Assessment and Accreditation Council, Bangalore. In 2018, the University Grants Commission has granted Autonomous Status for RGNUL for being an Institute of Higher Education with Excellence.

ABOUT ALTERNATIVE DISPUTE RESOLUTION CELL (ADRC)

Alternative Dispute Resolution Cell (ADRC) has been established to promote students’ interest in Alternative Dispute Resolution (ADR) constituting dispute resolution methods like Arbitration, Negotiation, Mediation and Conciliation. These dispute resolution methods though more economical and faster are not yet very popular among common Indian masses. ADRC endeavors to promote and develop ADR as a vehicle of socio-economic and political justice. The ultimate objective of the Cell is to strengthen ADR mechanism in the country by emerging as a platform for students to further their interests in the field.
