

BIOLOGICAL DIVERSITY LAW MOOT COURT COMPETITION 2019

CLARIFICATIONS TO THE MOOT PROBLEM

At the outset, we thank very enthusiastically towards the Provisional Registration of teams. We have taken note of the same, and cordially thank everyone for their overwhelming response.

The Clarifications are enlisted herein below:

1. The laws of India are applicable to the given Moot Problem.
2. All provisions applicable to the National Biodiversity Authority are in pari materia to the law applicable to the Indian Biodiversity Authority in the Moot Problem.
3. Team Code Allotment shall happen as on January 28, 2019
4. The Competition is open for such number of teams that may register for the Memorial Rounds, kindly look into the Rules of the Competition. The Results of the Memorial Rounds shall be announced as on February 10, 2019, and those who qualify the same shall be eligible for participation in the Oral rounds.
5. The Participants will be provided Food and Accommodation between 5:00 P.M. on February 20, 2018 to 9:00 A.M on February 23, 2018
6. Kindly address Registration Mails to Ms. Susheela "susheela@nls.ac.in", and Mr. Rohith Kamath at rohithkamath@nls.ac.in with Subject Line: "Registration for NLS-UNDP 2019 MOOT" on or before January 26, 2018.
7. CORRIGENDUM

Page 7 of the Moot Problem:

Issue 4 states "Does the impugned order dated December 21, 2017 for the unilateral revocation of the Agreement amount to violation of India's obligations under the IGBIT with Germany?"

Stands corrected to:

"Does the impugned order dated January 5, 2018 for the unilateral revocation of the Agreement amount to violation of India's obligations under the IGBIT with Germany?"

8. The following queries are not clarified to maintain the competitive spirit:
 - interpretation of legal principles and applicable law;
 - Primary facts that were to be deciphered from close scrutiny of the problem.

Any inconvenience caused to the participants, in the receipt of responses is regretted.