INTERNATIONAL LEGAL NORMS ON TERRORISM & COUNTER-TERRORISM: PROMISES, EXPERIENCES AND CHALLENGES

From 27th to 29th January, 2019

CALL FOR PAPERS

Dear Sir/Madam,

The Government Law College, Kozhikode is organizing a three day International Seminar on International Legal Norms on Terrorism & Counter-Terrorism: Promises, Experiences and Challenges from 27th to 29th January, 2019, at the college premises. This seminar aims at promoting comparative global research, law reform and policy initiatives to combat terrorism, and to bring together researchers, practitioners, and policy makers to discuss problems, disseminate learning, and share knowledge of existing policy, research, and international lessons in the area.

Our Keynote Speaker is Ms. Shannon Maree Torrens, International and Human Rights Lawyer, who has worked in international criminal law at the international criminal tribunals and courts focusing on genocide, crimes against humanity and war crimes. She has worked as a legal and political advisor for the Marshall Islands in connection with the United Nations and the International Criminal Court. Shannon has lectured, published and presented papers in the areas of international criminal law, human rights, climate change and law of the sea internationally. She is currently a PhD Candidate at the University of Sydney Law School

We expect thought-provoking, multi-disciplinary, quality research papers within the broad themes of the seminar. Guidelines regarding the call for papers have been set forth below. We solicit your esteemed presence and meaningful involvement in the proceedings.

Thanking you

Yours truly

Dr. C Thilakanandan
