

CALL FOR PAPERS: AMITY INTERNATIONAL JOURNAL OF JURIDICAL SCIENCES (AIJJS), VOLUME V; SUBMIT BY JUNE 30

AMITY INTERNATIONAL JOURNAL OF JURIDICAL SCIENCES (AIJJS)'s editorial team is pleased to invite unique and unpublished manuscripts from academics, professionals and law students for the Fifth Volume of the Journal.

ABOUT THE UNIVERSITY

Amity University is a leading research private university established in 2005 under a State Act. It is recognized by the University Grants Commission (UGC) and accredited by the National Assessment and Accreditation Council (NAAC) with an “A+” grade. The University has twenty-one campuses in India and eight at international locations. It provides higher education in diverse disciplines, including an excellent law program through Amity Law School. The Law School is committed to preparing the next generation of legal professionals who are fully equipped to face the demands of the profession. It is focused on the student experience and aims to provide an intellectually stimulating learning environment for its nearly five thousand students. The Law School’s curriculum integrates learning about legal concepts with practical training, and its legal academics work collaboratively toward achieving these goals. The Law School presently offers three undergraduate five-year LLB programmes: BA LLB (H), BBA LLB (H) and B. Com LLB (H). It also offers a three-year LLB along-with an LLM and PhD.

ABOUT THE JOURNAL

AMITY INTERNATIONAL JOURNAL OF JURIDICAL SCIENCES (AIJJS) is published annually by Amity Law School, Amity University, Noida bearing ISSN 2395-4019. It is a faculty run Annual Refereed Journal whose primary goal is to serve an important legal scholarship academic forum on any issue. The AIJJS, through the provision of socially relevant legal knowledge, will promote reflective thinking. This review is a serious attempt to provide an effective research tool by sparking scholastic conversation among a variety of academics, judges, lawyers, practitioners, students, activists, scholars, and prominent thinkers.

The Journal has some truly magnificent contributions from distinguished legal scholars from all over the world and is also immensely proud of its fairly large advisory board, which includes internationally respected professors from various highly regarded universities and institutions around the world.

The review will publish articles from scholars. All submissions will be subjected to a rigorous scientific editorial process designed to fine tune and substance strengthening. It seeks to contribute towards the endeavour of strengthening and facilitating legal ease for law in India.

The Journal examines the development and evolution of laws with regard to judicial interpretation, authorities and other valuable resources. The AIJJS' Editorial Board seeks to place particular emphasis (invites articles) on evolving laws in India through the various contemporary developments of law, legal practices and other interdisciplinary topics.

GUIDELINES FOR SUBMISSIONS:

Word Limit:

Articles (words between 6000 and 8000, except footnotes);

Please follow the prescribed word limit.

Formatting:

1. The manuscript body must be in the "Times New Roman" font with font size 12, line spacing 1.5 and the "justified" alignment with 1 inch margins on all sides of page with page numbers;
2. All footnotes must be in "Times New Roman" with font size 10, line spacing 1. Endnotes are not allowed and speaking footnotes are generally discouraged;
3. All submissions must follow the "Bluebook: A Uniform Citation System (19th edition)." Failure to comply could be a ground for rejection;
4. Submissions should be made in Microsoft Office (doc./docx.) with formatting and citation style only. Any kind of plagiarism will lead to immediate disqualification. The paper should not contain of any kind of errors in grammar and spelling.

General Guidelines:

1. Each submission must be accompanied by an abstract of no more than 500 words outlining the study area and any important conclusions that the author(s) may draw and at most 5 keywords;
2. Covering Letter: All personal details, including name, year, college / university name, postal address, phone number and email Id, must be submitted in a separate file and must not be included in the article submission document or file;
3. Co-authorship is allowed to a maximum of 2 authors.
4. Submissions must be submitted to als.aijjs@gmail.com with the subject line "Submission of Manuscripts for Volume V". The deadline for submissions is 30 June 2019;
5. All papers must be accompanied by a 'Conclusion' stating the views and opinions of the authors on the subject. Authors can expect to receive their submission decisions within two months of submission;
6. Kindly note that the manuscript review procedure is based on the author's anonymity and the editors ' and reviewers ' reports are kept confidential at all phases of development. Author anonymity is also maintained during the process of editorial decision-making;

7. AIJJS publishes only original and unpublished material. Manuscripts must therefore not, at any time during the period of consideration by the Journal, be considered for publication in any other place, nor published beforehand;
8. The Law Review has a strict plagiarism policy as well. Plagiarism shall be liable for rejection of the manuscript. All entries shall be copyrighted exclusively with Amity Law School, Noida. The submission would imply that the author has assigned such rights to Amity Law School, Noida.

Contact

For any queries feel free to contact:

als.aijjs@gmail.com.

