2019-2019

Student Editorial Positions¹

- A) Student Editorial Board: Senior Editors (3), Associate Editors (3) (Applications Over)
B) Blog Editors: Senior Editor (1) Editor (1) (Applications will be opening in October)

¹ More positions would be added in the future. Currently the Journal is seeking applications for 6 positions in total.

A) Student Editorial Board

1. Senior Student Editor (3 places)

Description

Senior Editors are primarily responsible³ for ensuring the content of the article, as well as its citations, are in conformity with Bluebook Citation Format. In addition to fixing grammatical, punctuation, and spelling errors, Senior Editors also format each article. They are also responsible for overseeing sentence and language construction errors in the articles.

Requirements

- a) No restrictions on the applicant's year of study. 4th and 5th year Law students as well as Postgraduate Law students will be given priority. Students having a keen interest and knowledge in Sports Law will be given preference.
- b) Must demonstrate the ability to work in a team.
- c) It is strongly advised that applicants are familiar with legal writing, especially Bluebook form of citation.
- d) Familiarity with legal databases (e.g. Westlaw, LexisNexis and Hein Online) is favorable.
- e) Experience working on law journals/reviews or similar experience is favorable.

2. Associate Student Editor (3 places) Description

Associate Editors primarily focus on pulling each source that corresponds to each footnote during the editorial process. They review, check, and confirm citations for technical and substantive accuracy.

Associate Editors work closely with the Editorial Board, Senior Editors and the Managing Editor of the JSLPG to edit and produce the journal. Typically this will involve proofreading articles, checking footnotes, and verifying all sources cited by the authors. Student Editors gain valuable experience in high-level academic writing in law and develop excellent analytical and legal skills. They also get the opportunity to work with the Academic editors and other law students in the production of an academic publication.

Requirements

- a) No restrictions on the applicant's year of study. Junior Undergraduate students pursuing Law will be preferred. (First Year UG Law Students would not be allowed)
- b) Must demonstrate the ability to work in a team.
- c) It is advised that applicants are familiar with legal writing, especially Bluebook form of citation.
- d) Familiarity with legal databases (e.g. Westlaw, LexisNexis and Hein Online) is favorable.

³ Additional responsibilities in excess to the listed ones may be given to Senior Editors at the discretion of the Organizing Board in consultation with the Executive Board, Editorial Board, Managing Editor and the Hon'ble Vice-Chancellor of the National Law University and Judicial Academy.

B) Blog Editors (Applications open in October)

1. Senior Editor (1 place)

2. Editor (1 place)

Description

This year from October, the JSLPG will concurrently run a blog site which aims to post relevant legal issues and articles in areas of interests to the Sports Law Community and Sports Law students. The blog editors will be responsible for overlooking submissions to the blog. Aside from editing for grammar, spelling and general mistakes, the editors must also perform basic fact checking and source pulling in articles to ensure they are of the best quality.

Requirements
